Faculty & Instructor
Resource Guide

Provided by PPCC's Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning

Welcome to PPCC!

We are so glad you decided to join the talented faculty and staff at Pikes Peak Community College. Our mission as a college is “Students Succeed at PPCC.” We believe that in order for students to succeed, our faculty need to be prepared with the proper tools and resources to foster success in the classroom from day one.

This resource guide is a vital tool for your success. It contains information from many of the departments, divisions and services here at the school. We hope you will consider it your first stop when you have a question or concern. It is designed to serve as a road map to guide you along the way.

As with any printed document, there are bound to be errors and omissions. If you find an error, please contact that specific department to let them know so they can update their content. The most current, electronic version of this document is housed in the Resources section of the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning LibGuide. (libguides.ppcc.edu/cetl)

We look forward to working with you to ensure student success as well as your own.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Work Duties

Before the Semester Starts

- Create your syllabi; see <https://www.ppcc.edu/syllabus>
- If required by dept., get syllabi approved by dept. chair or lead instructor
- Upload your syllabi to your PPCC Online Campus (D2L) course shell(s)
- Upload your syllabi to your division shell
- Upload your syllabi to your department shell (if applicable)
- Create Sign-in sheets
- Set up Attendance in PPCC Online Campus (D2L)
- Set up Gradebook in PPCC Online Campus (D2L)
- Visit Classroom
- Login to Classroom Computer

The Week Before Classes Start

- Attend Professional Development Keynote Speaker and Workshops

Before Classes Start

- Print Out Class Lists

First Week of Class

- Take Attendance
- Go over Syllabi, Course Requirements, Course Expectations
- Give students a chance to participate in the class, ask questions
- Introduce course material and meet for the full class period. This sets the tone for the course and lets students know you are excited to be teaching them.
- Submit No Shows (to myPPCC and PPCC Online Campus Division shell)

Second Week Before Census/Drop Date

- Have students submit at least one assignment
- Grade the assignment so students know what to expect

After Census/Drop Date

- Double-check class list, no shows removed, students attending are enrolled

Third Week of Classes

- Knowing student names by week 3 is essential for student retention

Fourth Week of Classes

- This is a great time to introduce the final project for your course and start scaffolding the assignment. Setting up milestones for big projects aids student success.

Fifth & Sixth Week of Classes

- ☐ Research shows that week six is crucial for student retention. Make sure students are excited about your week six activity!
- ☐ Student engagement is important. Are your students actively participating in your class? Implement ideas from Elizabeth Barkley's book "Student Engagement Techniques," available for checkout from the CETL section in the PPCC library.

Eighth Week of Classes

- ☐ Feedback is a crucial component of the learning process. Now is a great time to ensure that your student's grades are current. This allows them to set goals for the last half of the semester.

Eleventh Week of Classes

- ☐ Two thirds of the way through and our students are feeling it. Consider a field trip, a group exercise or something out of the ordinary this week.
- ☐ Remind students they can come talk to you if they are struggling or need help.

Twelfth Week of Classes

- ☐ This is a great week to have students turn in a rough draft of their final project. Scaffolding the project guides students along the way and allows you to monitor their progress.
- ☐ The Withdraw Date is coming. Make sure student grades are current so they can make informed decisions.

Thirteenth Week of Classes

- ☐ Registration for next semester should be open by now. Talk with students about what courses follow yours. Encourage them to register early.

Fourteenth Week of Classes

- ☐ Review, review, review. Assess where your students are in regard to the course content. Assist them in preparing for their final exam or project.
- ☐ Student evaluations are open. Remind students to participate in this opportunity to have their voices heard.

Fifteenth Week of Classes

- ☐ Give students an opportunity to reflect on what they have learned in your class.
- ☐ Honor the community you have built by allowing time for students to say good-bye to you and to one another.

End of Semester

- ☐ Submit final grades and attendance to Dashboard in myPPCC and PPCC Online Campus (D2L) Division shell

Pikes Peak Community College Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Guiding Principles

Vision:

To strive for a more unified campus where all people are valued, treated fairly, and possess a sense of belonging.

Mission:

To support the success of all Pikes Peak Community College students, employees and other affiliates by exercising culturally responsive teaching and providing programs and events designed to create an inclusive campus environment that reflects and enriches the communities that we serve.

(PPCC Diversity Team, March 2017)

Pikes Peak Community College Commitment to Inclusive Excellence

Pikes Peak Community College (PPCC) is committed to serving the good of the community. We do this by educating people. We provide open access to higher education and a high quality learning environment in which students can realize new opportunities and gain critical, 21st century skills they need to succeed in the workforce or in further education. Teaching people how to work effectively with others, across boundaries, is central to our mission.

This begins with welcoming and valuing people for who they are and for the unique contributions each person adds to our campus. It also requires our faculty, staff and students to encounter, explore and understand a broad range of ideas and cultures. Our community college mission is inseparable from the ever-increasing diversity in our society: diverse and inclusive learning and working environments promote a free and open exchange of ideas; improve critical thinking, civic engagement and leadership skills; and deepen empathy and respect for those unlike ourselves. Our campus is enriched by a variety of voices and experiences.

Attracting, hiring and retaining a highly engaged workforce that reflects and supports the diversity of our student body are of central importance to our work. Other essential factors are expanding and strengthening opportunities for students to learn and succeed through culturally responsive instruction and diversity – infused course offerings. We ensure that diversity represents a process of continual learning and improvement by developing, cultivating and sustaining an organizational culture based on mutual respect, inquiry and civility.

(PPCC Diversity Team, October 2015)

Email as the official electronic means of communication procedure

Effective January 1, 2014

Position Statement

Email is considered the official electronic means of communication within Pikes Peak Community College. Pikes Peak Community College will utilize the assigned email addresses of faculty, staff and students to send electronic communications related to the business of the college and have an expectation that those emails will be read in a timely fashion.

Scope

This procedure applies to all persons employed by and all students enrolled at Pikes Peak Community College.

Procedure

1. Information Technology Support Services (ITSS) will assign faculty, staff and student email addresses. These email addresses will be the official emails for College-wide communications.
 - a. Faculty and Staff emails are Employee's Name first.last@ppcc.edu (plus # if more than one)
 - b. Student emails are filastname@student.cccs.edu (first initial last name)
2. Faculty should inform students of the best email (i.e., @ppcc.edu) for contacting the faculty member.
3. Faculty, staff and students are expected to check their official email on a regular basis.
4. Students may have their email electronically redirected to another email address, but do so at their own risk. PPCC is not responsible for how an outside provider handles email. Redirecting email does not eliminate the student's responsibility associated with email sent to the student's official email address.

Compliance with System President's Procedure

All persons employed by and all students enrolled at Pikes Peak Community College are required to comply with the System President's Procedure (SP) 3-125a "Electronic Communication Procedure" and System President's Procedure (SP) 3-125c "General Computer and Information System Procedure." In addition, students of the College are required to comply with System President's Procedure (SP) 4-32 "Student Email Acceptable Use Policy."

Contact Hours

It is imperative that all classes meet for the entirety of their scheduled class period. Faculty are not permitted to dismiss class early or cancel classes.

So you have 10 minutes left, now what? Rather than dismiss early, try:

- A quick review of what you've covered so far in this module.
- Ask students about what they are still unclear of (muddiest point.)
- Ask what they found most interesting or unexpected.
- Preview the next class.
- Spend a few minutes getting to know more about students.
- Share how the material you covered impacts the world outside the classroom.

Late Grades, No Shows & COF

Late Grades

Late grades can have a negative impact for students and the college. If grades are not submitted by the deadline, it could impact a student's financial aid, veteran's benefits, or other financial assistance. A student may be required to pay back money or may not be able to receive future financial assistance. Also, students may not be able to register for their next semester. This is frustrating for students and can interfere with their success and ultimately graduation. Pikes Peak Community College depends on the retention and success of our students. Late grades can delay a student receiving their diploma.

LATE NO SHOWS COST MONEY

No Shows

The Records Office defines a late no show as being entered after the drop date for the part of term for the course. Late no shows can have a significant impact on a student for financial aid and records purposes. If a student receives financial aid and a no show is entered after the drop period, a student may have to repay any financial aid that was disbursed. The college must also reimburse the COF amount to College Assist for any late no shows in which the college has already received funding.

Late no shows cost the students and the college an average of $30,000.00 a semester.

What is COF?

The College Opportunity Fund (COF), created by the Colorado Legislature and distributed by College Assist, provides a stipend to eligible undergraduate students. There are no income qualifications for COF and it is unrelated to financial aid. Undergraduate students enrolled at public colleges are eligible if they are classified as in-state students for tuition purposes and demonstrate lawful presence in the United States. This includes VA/military students, Olympic athletes, high school concurrent enrollment students, DACA, ASSET, and students on a visa.

The stipend pays a portion of a student's total in-state tuition when they attend a participating college and varies from year to year. Eligible undergraduate students receive this benefit. Both new and continuing students are eligible for the stipend.

To receive this benefit, undergraduate students must create a COF account once at <https://cof.college-assist.org/> and authorize the stipend each semester through their PPCC student portal.

Eligibility, account creation and authorization for any enrolled student can be confirmed by the Records office.

Qualifying students may use the stipend to discount the cost of eligible undergraduate classes. The stipend is paid on a per credit hour basis directly to the college at which the student is enrolled. Students are given the stipend for their first 145 credit hours. Hour extensions may be available on a case by case basis.

If a student drops a class or if a tuition appeal is granted during the same semester, the COF stipend is returned to College Assist. If a student withdraws, they keep the stipend and the credit hours are deducted from their total hours available.

If you have any further questions, contact the Records Office.

Check out the “How Do I...?” tab on the CETL Libguide at:

libguides.ppcc.edu/cetl

for detailed instructions and instructional videos on submitting your No Shows and Final Grades and uploading your Syllabus to PPCC Online
Campus (D2L).

Syllabus

You can find detailed information and resources for building syllabi at <https://www.ppcc.edu/syllabus>.

Your syllabus should be uploaded into the Content Area of your PPCC class shells. You must also upload it to your division shell using the Assignments tool.

No Shows

No Shows must be entered in myPPCC and uploaded to the division shell in PDF format by 5 p.m. on the census date.

To submit your no shows:

- Enter No Shows into myPPCC
- Save No Shows in up-loadable PDF format
- Upload your PDF into the division shell in PPCC Online Campus (D2L)

Notes:

Final Grades

Final Grades must be entered in myPPCC and uploaded to the division shell in PDF format by 5 p.m. on the due date.

For College Prep Classes, Last Date of Attendance is required for “D” and “F” grades.

Please note that PPCC recommends using Google Chrome to save No Shows and Final Grades from myPPCC as up-loadable PDFs.

Gradebook

All divisions require the use of the Gradebook feature in PPCC Online Campus. You can export your grades to a CSV or Excel file. This file will need to be uploaded to the division shell along with the final grades from myPPCC and attendance records.

Visual Learner?

Find videos on how to upload your Syllabus, submit No Shows & Final Grades on the How Do I...? tab at:
libguides.ppcc.edu/cetl

You can find detailed information and resources for building syllabi at <https://www.ppcc.edu/syllabus>.

Syllabi for all courses must be entered into the appropriate PPCC Online Campus (D2L) course shells.

1. Upload to course section shells for students.
2. Upload to division shell for record keeping.

Step by Step Instructions for Syllabus upload to Class Shell

- Login to ppcc.edu
- Choose the D2L icon
- Choose the appropriate class
- Under the Content tab add a Module.
- Name it "Important Documents" or "Welcome: Start Here"
- Use the Upload/Create button to upload the document
- Click on Upload Files.
- Choose My Computer, Upload, and select file and click open.
- Then Add selected File

Step by Step Instructions for adding the Syllabus to the Division Shell

- Login to ppcc.edu
- Choose the D2L icon
- Select your Division
- Under the Assignments tab, choose the appropriate semester's assignment folder (Read the titles carefully as multiple semesters and assignments will be seen here.)
- Upload the document and submit

As you prepare your syllabus, be sure to use the naming convention that your division requires. This might include the CRN number and section number for your course.

The No Shows process has three steps:

1. Enter no shows into PPCC.edu
2. Save no shows as a .pdf
3. Upload document into the division shell in PPCC Online Campus (D2L) Division shell

Entering No Shows in myPPCC

- Login to PPCC.edu
- On the Dashboard, choose Post Final Grades/No Shows
- Select current semester
- Choose a course from the menu
- If you have a student who did not attend class, enter a "0" in the column titled Attended Hours.
- Scroll to the end of the page to Submit
- While still on this page, use Control A, Control P (in Google Chrome) to save as a .pdf. Name the file with a course and section number such as COM115.129

Another option to prepare the upload would be to print a hard copy, scan it and save it to your desktop or thumb drive. Then upload it from there to the division D2L Assignment folder.

*You are responsible for checking the class roster after the census. It's a good idea to check the class roster again after one month into the term. If you know students are attending, but do not appear on your class roster, send them to the division office for assistance.

If a student attends after you marked them as a "No Show," work with your division/department leadership to determine the best direction to take.

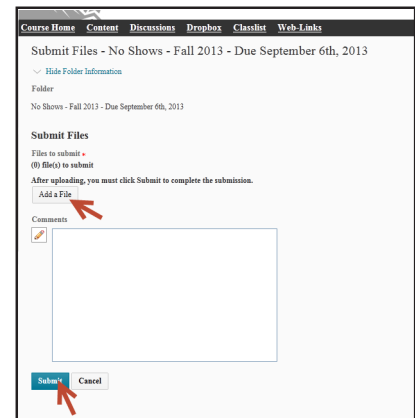

Even if all students "showed", you must still submit a no show grade roster for that class.

Step by Step Instructions for uploading into the Division shell

- Login to myPPCC
- Choose the D2L icon
- From Courses, choose the division shell
- Choose the Assignments tab
- Choose the appropriate semester's assignment folder
- Choose "Add a File" and upload the file document; then submit

You will receive an email with a confirmation that the file has been uploaded.

A video on how to submit No Shows on the 'How Do I...' tab at: libguides.ppcc.edu/cetl

If you have any questions, please contact your division administrative staff.

Notes:

Final Grades* must be entered in myPPCC by 5:00 p.m. on due date

*Final Grades include both your myPPCC grades and the Excel gradebook you downloaded from PPCC Online Campus (D2L)

- Enter grades into myPPCC, PostFinal Grades/No Shows
- Submit grades from myPPCC and save as a .pdf document
- Export your gradebook from PPCC Online Campus (D2L) into an Excel file
- Upload both documents into the Division Shell in PPCC Online Campus (D2L)
- Some divisions also require attendance records to be uploaded to the division shell. Please check with your division for their requirements.

Step by Step Instructions for myPPCC.edu

- Login to myPPCC.edu
- From the Dashboard, choose Post Final Grades/No Shows
- Select current semester
- Choose a course from the menu
- Enter final grades for each student

For College Prep Classes

Last Date of Attendance is required for "D" or "F" grades, and then submit.

From Google Chrome, control A control P will allow you to save the information into a .pdf document. Name the file your class's name e.g. ENG 121.101.

Notes:

Step by Step Instructions for GRADEBOOK

All divisions require the use of the Gradebook feature in PPCC Online Campus (D2L). To access the Gradebook, go to PPCC website and log on.

- Choose the D2L icon.
In the grades tab of your PPCC Online Campus class, click on export (see screen shot).
- See the screenshot on the left for the export options.

Choose

- Org Defined ID
- Points grade
- Last Name
- First Name
- Assignments to include
- Export grades to Excel

This file will need to be uploaded to the division shell along with the final grades from myPPCC and your attendance records.

Step by Step Instructions for uploading into the Division shell

- Login to PPCC.edu
- Choose the D2L icon
- From Courses, choose the division shell
- Choose the Assignments tab
- Choose the appropriate semester's assignment folder
- Choose add a file and upload the file document; then submit

You will receive an email in D2L with a confirmation that the files have been uploaded.

EACH COURSE & SECTION MUST BE UPLOADED SEPARATELY.

If you have any questions regarding submitting grades to the PPCC Online Campus shell, please contact your division administrative staff.

A video on how to submit Final Grades is on the 'How Do I...' tab at: libguides.ppcc.edu/cetl

Email, Mailboxes, Cancellation & Substitute Policy

Email

The importance of checking your college email cannot be stressed enough. The main form of communication from the college occurs via email. You will receive department notices, division information, as well as college wide materials through your email. It is important to check your email routinely.

If you need instructions for accessing your college e-mail from home please contact the ITSS Help Desk at 719-502-4800.

Campus Mailboxes

If you teach at more than one campus be aware you have a mailbox at EACH campus. Please check your mailboxes on a regular basis. Not only do staff and administration send you mail but students sometimes leave coursework and other documents for you in your mailbox. Student Support Services sends time sensitive materials through intercampus mail that require your documentation. Other offices at the college use the mail system as well.

Class Cancellation and Substitute Policy

The college discourages class cancellations. Only the president of PPCC can cancel classes due to weather. If you need to miss a class, you will need to arrange for a substitute. Please contact your Department Chair to determine their procedure for scheduling subs. Many have created sub lists. Have your lesson plans available for your sub.

In the event of last minute emergency, contact your Division office so they may put a sign on your classroom door for students.

All classes should meet for the entire class period. Faculty may not routinely release students early.

Division	Email	Phone number

ME	ppcc.mestaff@ppcc.edu	719-502-3600
MS	ppcc.msstaff@ppcc.edu	719-502-3450

If campus is closed or delayed (please remember that only Dr. Bolton can cancel or delay class due to weather):

- Be aware that the college may issue Online Home Instruction for the day.
- You may want to tell your students in advance to watch D2L for a post from you with material you want them to review or complete and to check their PPCC e-mail for updates from the school.
- Instructors should consider having a backup plan if it looks like a closure or delay might be possible.
- Post any instructions for your students in your online shell prior to normal class time in the Announcements section.
- If you don't have time to post all of what you want, post an announcement telling them when content will be available.
- Give students one week to complete materials assigned in this manner.
- In cases of making up lab content time, please work with your Associate Dean.

A Department-Centric Approach to Continuous Quality Improvement

What is assessment of student learning?

1. Deciding what we want our students to learn upon completing a given course or program
2. Making sure students have multiple opportunities to learn and practice key learning outcomes
3. Asking students to demonstrate what they have learned through course-embedded assignments
4. Evaluating the extent to which students have achieved the desired learning outcomes
5. Using assessment results to confirm or improve student learning ("closing the loop")
6. Documenting and communicating results, conclusions, and next steps on an annual basis

Why do we assess student learning?

- To confirm or improve student learning and educational quality
- To meet the requirements of our regional and specialized accrediting agencies.
- Our regional accrediting agency (the Higher Learning Commission) requires that we demonstrate a commitment to educational achievement and improvement through ongoing assessment of student learning.

Who is in charge of student learning assessment?

- Assessment of student learning is a collective responsibility. Broad involvement from instructional staff and administrators is required.
- Faculty and instructors play a key role in this process. They are responsible for measuring students' abilities to achieve desired learning outcomes and demonstrating how assessment results are being used to confirm or improve student learning.
- Associate Deans and Assessment Coaches are responsible for guiding the assessment process. This includes ensuring that assessment strategies adhere to best practices and making sure that these strategies are implemented with fidelity by all faculty/instructors involved.
- Administrative leaders (Deans, Associate Deans, Vice President of Instructional Services, and PPCC President) promote and support assessment efforts by i) reinforcing the importance of student learning assessment as a means to improve student learning and fulfill accreditation requirements, and ii) ensuring that departments have the resources they need to develop and implement effective assessment strategies.
- The Executive Director of Institutional Effectiveness works closely with instructional staff and administrators to facilitate the development, implementation, and monitoring of assessment activities.
- The Assessment Committee facilitates and supports the development and implementation of meaningful, data-driven, and interconnected assessment processes across the four academic divisions of the college.
- Non-instructional departments

(e.g. academic advising, tutoring services, library services) are involved in assessing what students learn as a result of participating in co-curricular activities. Through training and consultation services, the Committee for Assessment in Student Services (CASS) assists those departments in articulating meaningful and measurable outcomes, deploying effective assessment strategies, and interpreting, reporting, and using assessment results to continuously enhance students' learning experiences.

Research Activities

PPCC encourages and supports the scholarly endeavors of students faculty, and staff affiliated with the college. Pursuit of scholarly work and research often involves the use of human subjects for data collection and analysis. PPCC's Institutional review board (IRB) reviews human subjects research proposals to ensure that:

- the rights and welfare of human subjects used in research studies are protected.
- risks have been considered and minimized.
- the potential for benefit has been identified and maximized.
- all human subjects only volunteer to participate in research after being provided with legally effective informed consent.
- any research is conducted in an ethical manner and in compliance with established standards.

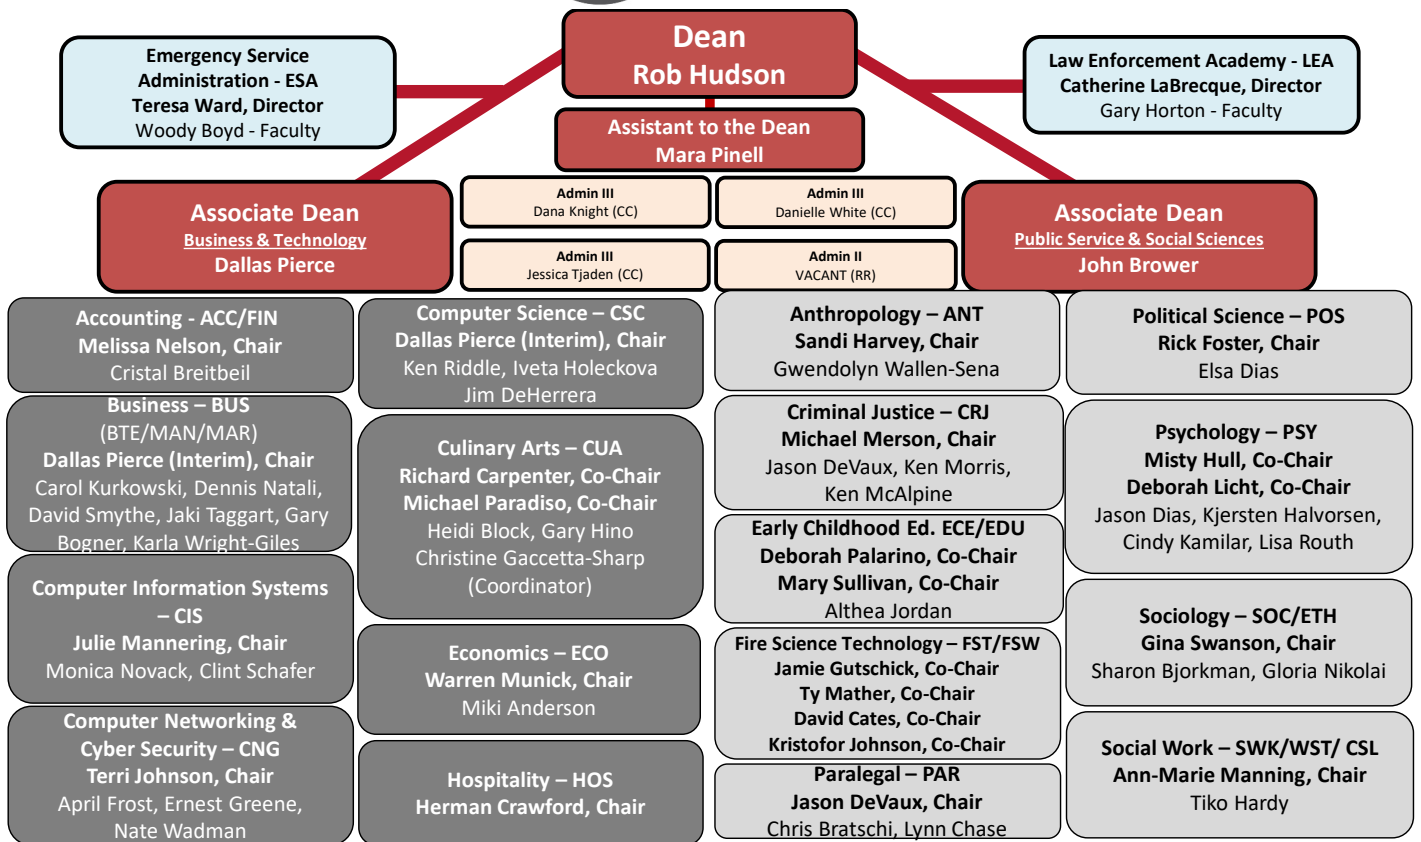

Those individuals seeking to conduct such research may not solicit subject participation or begin data collection until they have obtained clearance by the PPCC IRB. Forms are available at <https://ppcc.edu/p/committees/irb>. If you have any questions, please contact Patricia Diawara, PPCC IRB Chair.

Concurrent Enrollment

Allows students to earn college credit while in high school, largely funded by their high school. Concurrent Enrollment opportunities may exist at students' high schools, online, and all PPCC campuses. Courses held at area high schools are taught by PPCC-qualified instructors and evaluated by appropriate department chairs.

Instructor's Need to Know

- Students have qualified for your course by meeting your course's entrance requirements through testing or completion of prerequisite courses.
- Treat all students the same as they are all college students.
- FERPA applies to all PPCC students, regardless of student's age.
- Students may bring attendance and grade verification forms. Giving this information to students is not a FERPA violation.

Career Start

A career-based, cohort model of concurrent enrollment. Career Start inspires high school students to start exploring career opportunities, start gaining knowledge and skills toward career goals, and start earning college credits and certificates. High school juniors and seniors have the opportunity to earn up to 21 college credits, applicable to AAS degrees and certificates, in a school year.

Instructor's Need to Know

- Monday – Friday - primarily in the mornings at Centennial Campus

Providing high school students with the opportunity to earn college credits.

ASCENT

Allows high schools to pay for students' freshman year of college. Students must successfully complete 12 college-level credits prior to high school graduation to be eligible.

Instructor's Need to Know

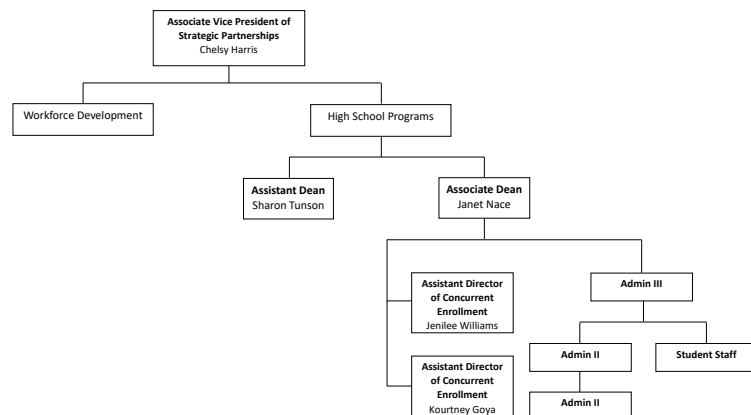

- Students may have completed high school but may share attendance and grade verification forms to receive tuition funding from their high school.

Pivot

Re-engages high school students who are credit-deficient. Students' first semester is a college-preparatory cohort, with remaining semesters focused on students' individual academic and career goals. Students earn high school and college credit.

Instructor's Need to Know

- PPCC student success coaches may connect with you to verify attendance and discuss academic opportunities to increase student engagement and academic success.

Instructor Evaluation Form

Evaluation of Part-Time Instructor

Pikes Peak Community College

The process of part-time evaluation is divided into two parts. The first part evaluates the instructor's ability to meet basic job requirements as outlined in the job description and educational policies of Pikes Peak Community College. The second part is to evaluate the instructor's teaching effectiveness. The student evaluations will be used to discover trends in the instructor's interaction with the students and may be noted in part one of this form.

PART ONE

This portion of the evaluation shall be completed on an annual basis for all part-time instructors. Part-time instructors are to be made aware of these results and given a chance to document a response. Please mark yes, no or not applicable in the blank next to each statement.

Instructor _____ Department _____

Evaluator _____ Title _____

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- Instructor meets all schedule classes/labs/clinics on time and provides instruction in accordance with the philosophy and objectives of the college and the Department Chair's approved course outline.
- Instructor informs students of course requirements through a course syllabus, including: specific objectives means of attaining objectives and methods of instruction and grading.
- Instructor maintains course materials that are clear, complete, and relevant (may include syllabus, D2L shell, and other materials)
- Instructor evaluates students on a continuing basis to allow them to be aware of their own progress.
- Instructor maintains and submits records such as no shows lists, grades and attendance documentation in a timely manner as required by policies and procedures.
- Instructor is easy to contact, and responds to contacts by the department.
- Instructor maintains required credentials, licenses, certifications as appropriate, proficiency and up-to-date knowledge in the subject matter area
- If applicable, instructor conducts field trips/clinical sessions in a manner that assures a safe learning environment for students
- When possible, instructor recommends instructional materials, textbooks, appropriate instructional equipment and library supportive reference materials

Please provide comments that support your evaluation (if any):

OBSERVATION OF TEACHING GLOSSARY

The purpose of this glossary is to provide examples of some of the components contained in the Evaluation of Teaching Form. It is intended for use by observers as a guide with selected (but, not inclusive) examples of teaching effectiveness, and by instructors as a guide with selected (but, not inclusive) components to consider when delivering content. It is not meant for use as a checklist. The observed class/teaching may include, but is not limited to the following components.

COURSE MATERIALS

Syllabus clearly communicates:

- course policies and expectations
- due dates/course calendar
- course, program, college, and CCCS student learning outcomes
- (syllabi for online courses are tailored to delivery method and divided into smaller documents)

Lesson plan or course calendar/outline meets course objectives

D2L shell contains course syllabus and is easy to navigate:

- content is divided into logical modules, units, chapters etc.; news items give clear instruction; discussions and assignments follow logical sequences
- supports all instructor/student functions (example: discussion, drop box, grade book) relevant to the course and documents are posted in PDF or rich text file (RTF) whenever possible
- first day news item includes welcome, course description, contact information and clear instruction on where to begin for online courses
- contains links to the universal syllabus and other sites as appropriate
- (design follows current standards for Online and Hybrid courses) (see appendix to this document)

CLASS STRUCTURE AND ORGANIZATION

Organized delivery may include:

- beginning class with statement of outcomes
- summarizing where previous class left off
- connecting content to previous learning
- concluding session with discussion supporting objectives or reviewing upcoming assignments

PROMOTES STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Facilitates, and monitors, group activity/discussion:

- discussions/activities are clearly tied to course outcomes
- manages inappropriate, or off-topic student participation

COMMAND OF SUBJECT MATTER

Demonstrates mastery and currency of the subject matter and/or skill being presented:

- Compares outdated information/ideas to current trends in the discipline
- Conveys expectations which are both reasonable and challenging
- Provides clear explanations using appropriate vocabulary and examples
- Encourages independent, critical, or reflective thinking

PRESENTATION SKILLS

Communicating effectively may include:

- uses gestures and body movement effectively
- speaks distinctly, with volume, and appropriate speed
- uses lecture notes sparingly
- makes eye contact with students throughout the room

- moves around the room
- monitors and participates in online discussion to reinforce, correct, or redirect as appropriate

Effectively utilizes materials, including technology and use of the following items to engage/interest students:

- models, examples, teaching aids
- markers/ white board
- handouts/assignments
- exam/quizzes
- use of smart classroom technology
- PowerPoint
- videos

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR AND COURTEOUS INTERACTION WITH STUDENTS

Encourages an atmosphere of mutual respect:

- promotes appropriate and courteous two-sided communication/interaction (may include use of inoffensive language or humor)
- begins and ends class on time
- deals with inappropriate online D2L postings as quickly as possible
- corrects, clarifies, and coaches
- shows enthusiasm for the material and makes students want to learn
- notices and praises student mastery and/or concept comprehension
- respects the confidentiality of student information

OBSERVATION OF TEACHING APPENDIX

Standards for Online and Hybrid Course Design at PCC

DESIGN

Course Overview and Introductory Materials

- First-day News item that includes: a welcome to students, a brief course description, contact info for faculty (or instructor widget—see below) and clear instructions about what to do to begin the course.
- Introduction module under Content that includes syllabus tailored to delivery method and divided into smaller documents: course description and competencies, college-wide policies, class policies, schedule of due dates and other information students need but that isn't part of a specific unit of the course

- Content divided into logical modules, units, chapters, etc.
- List of outcomes (competencies) for each module
- Instructor –produced overview of each module (can also be a News item)
- Documents in PDF or rich text file (rtf) format whenever possible
- Publisher materials as appropriate
- Instructions about accessing publisher materials if they are not inside course shell
- Links to other sites as appropriate
- Make course materials accessible: add descriptive alt tag to images; avoid mixing colors with text; post transcripts for audio/video elements

Learner Engagement, including Discussions

- Discussions that are clearly tied to course outcomes
- At least one ongoing discussion available throughout the semester
- Discussions as a bridge between online and F2F in hybrid classes
- Open discussion topic in which students can talk about issues not tied to specific unit
- Clear explanation of requirements for graded discussions: number of postings, length, grammatical correctness, timing

Assessment and Measurement

- All assessments clearly tied to course outcomes
- Varied assignments that tap into a variety of learning styles
- Clear instructions about how exams will work that students can access before opening exam itself: timing, ability to skip questions and go back to them, etc.
- Clear explanation of requirements for assignments and how assignments will be evaluated
- Grade Book includes a column for each graded assignment, discussion, or assessment

TEACHING PRACTICES

Course Overview and Introductory Materials

- Double-check all dates for accuracy before term begins
- Add News items at regular intervals throughout semester
- Always keep following four NavBar links in such order: Course Home, Content, Discussions, Class List

Course Materials

- Update availability for Content modules and topics before term begins
- Make sure all links are working before semester begins

Mission of Advising & Testing Department

"To empower students through academic advising and assessment education by aiding them in identifying, exploring and accomplishing their academic and career goals."

Advising

Explore and accomplish your goals through advising. Whether you plan to transfer or go directly into the workforce you will need to complete your degree/certificate. We help you be informed so you can achieve your goals.

Meet with a Program Advisor
Advising is appointment based and appointments are available for in-person, phone, and virtual formats.

Advisors are available at each of our three locations: Centennial, Rampart Range, and Downtown Campus.

Program Advisors help students with:

- Information about academic programs including all degrees and certificates
- Changing majors (also known as - Course of Study Change)
- Assigning Faculty Advisors
- Interpreting your placement test, ACT, or SAT test scores
- Transfer advising for students seeking to transfer to another institution
- Academic planning for degrees and certificates and general transfer
- Information about Transfer Fairs and Information Sessions for specific academic programs
- Academic Suspension and Probation issues
- Locating institutional resources
- Applying for graduation
- Unofficial degree audits
- How to register for classes

Faculty Advisors can help students with:

- Verify prerequisites for registration
- Provide in-depth guidance on specific degree programs/certificates
- Assist with Academic Degree Plans
- Approve substitutions for degree requirements
- Identify un-fulfilled degree/program requirements
- Assist with the process of transferring to another college/university
- Assist students with applying for graduation

The Counseling Center's mission is to support student success by providing information and services related to emotional wellness. As we move forward into the spring semester, the Counseling Center would like to remind you of our continued services offered to PCC students.

- I. Services we provide
 - a. Appointments with professional mental health counselors up to 6 sessions per issue
 - b. Walk-In Appointments if available
 - c. Crisis intervention (tragedy, trauma, assault, and students showing signs of mental illness or thoughts of suicide)
 - d. Referral to community resources to help students with housing, food, transportation, clothing and other needs for students to succeed in college.
 - e. New- United Way 2-1-1 Navigator's- connect students with community and campus resources. Services are free and confidential, walk-in or by appointment, Centennial Campus, A303 (502-4525)
- II. Consultation
 - a. Faculty and Staff inquiring about a student that is in a difficult situation; displays odd behaviors/ comments / writings; or "something just doesn't seem right;"
 - b. Possible do's and don'ts of how best to communicate with a student dealing with a mental issue.
- III. Internships available
 - a. Master-level interns supervised by Director of Counseling Center
 - b. Interns are able to see students longer than six sessions
 - c. Provide same services as staff counselors

- V. Types of therapy
 - a. Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) has been found to be effective for a wide range of disorders. Cognitive behavioral therapy can be thought of as a combination of psychotherapy and behavioral therapy. CBT works by changing people's attitudes and their behavior by focusing on the thoughts, images, beliefs and attitudes that are held and how these processes relate to the way a person behaves, as a way of dealing with emotional problems.
 - b. EMDR (Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing) is a psychotherapy that enables people to heal from the symptoms and emotional distress that are the result of disturbing life experiences. EMDR therapy shows that the mind can in fact heal from psychological trauma as the body recovers from physical trauma.
 - c. Solution-Focused Therapy places focus on a person's present and future circumstances and goals rather than experiences. In this goal-oriented therapy, the symptoms or issues bringing a person to therapy are typically not targeted. Instead, a qualified therapist encourages those in treatment to develop a vision of the future and offers support as they determine the skills, resources, and abilities needed to achieve that vision successfully.
 - d. Reality Therapy approach to counseling and problem-solving focuses on the here-and-now of the client and how to create a better future, instead of concentrating at length on the past. It emphasizes making decisions, and taking action and control of one's own life. Typically, clients seek to discover what they really want and whether what they are currently doing is actually bringing them nearer to, or further away from, that goal.

- VI. Classroom Presentations
 - a. Psycho-educational workshops/ presentations (30-90 minute presentations available)
 - b. Stress management (identify stressors and ways to cope with stress)
 - c. Healthy vs. Unhealthy Relationships (relationship dynamics and problem-solving)
 - d. Identifying depression (signs/ symptoms, causes, treatment, how to cope)
 - e. Learning Styles (identify style, studying tips)
 - f. Mental Health First Aid (learn the signs of mental health problems, learn the ALGEE model; 8 hour course can be divided to fit class times)
 - g. New Presentation-Compassion Fatigue (signs/symptoms, causes, treatment, how to cope)
 - h. Topics can be presented during class times.

"It isn't where you came from. It's where you're going that counts."

Who should use the Early Alert Request System?

Any faculty member, who notices a student in their class is not attending, struggling or needing additional resources can submit an Early Alert Request.

When should a faculty member submit an Early Alert Request?

Do submit to Early Alert: poor attendance, bad grades, housing issues, transportation, etc. (Early Alert)

Do submit to Maxiant: cheating, plagiarizing, behavioral issues, etc. (Maxiant is accessed via the “Report an Incident or Concern” button on ppcc.edu and used to report Behavioral, Conduct & Student Concerns)

Where is the Early Alert Request located?

7/28/2020 Discover ePortfolio Faculty Resources Student F

D2L – Faculty Resources Tab
myPPCC – Faculty Quick Links

What to do when You aren't sure what to do

It's not uncommon to be unsure about where to report a concern. Should you use the Maxiant “Report An Incident” button the PPCC.edu homepage? Or the Early Alert System in D2L? We have several different places to report concerns and sometimes there are really gray issues that seem to cross the lines between student retention concerns and behavioral or conduct issues.

At PPCC, we are very fortunate to have a network student support services that have developed awesome interdepartmental lines of communication. What that means for you is that you can be confident that your report will get routed to the right folks efficiently and confidentially, whether you report it to the right agency or not.

The only thing you need to remember as a faculty member is:

JUST REPORT IT!
Let the Experts Sort It!

Retention Services – Early Alert Request SystemWhat is the Early Alert Request System?

The Early Alert Request System is a tool for faculty members to inform Retention Services of possible “at-risk” students in their classes, who may need additional academic and/or community resources to overcome any issue standing in the way of success.

Why was the Early Alert System developed?

The Early Alert Request System is a homegrown system developed in collaboration with Pikes Peak Community College faculty to assist with “at-risk” student success and retention efforts in and outside of the classroom.

What is the Learning Commons?

The Learning Commons is a cooperative learning space that encourages learning through academic exploration and social interactions. Library services, tutoring assistance, and information technology services are integrated in a central campus location to provide a continuum of academic support and resources for existing and prospective PPCC students.

Mission

The mission of our Learning Commons is to promote student persistence by reinforcing the importance of supplement support, collaborative inquiry, and independent learning. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to take advantage of the free academic resources offered in Learning Commons.

Services for Students

- Movable furniture to accommodate group or individual study spaces/private study rooms
- Library services (reference and resource assistance)
- Tutoring services (math, writing, science, and other academic courses)
- Pre-placement test assistance and supplemental instruction (EdReady Math and English)
- Technology assistance (D2L, personal and borrowed devices)
- Academic success workshops

Services for Faculty/Staff

- Faculty and staff research assistance
- Course reserves (books, articles, artifacts, etc.)
- Interlibrary and inter-campus book loan
- Instructional Services (schedule class/group presentations)
- Technology assistance

For Faculty

Pikes Peak Community College instruction librarians are subject matter experts in information literacy and are eager to partner with you to address the needs of students. Instruction librarians teach skills in information Literacy, Inquiry and Analysis, Critical and Creative Thinking.

Instruction librarians will visit your classroom, in person or online, upon request and teach students how to use the library resources, including how to find scholarly articles in databases and eBooks. In addition, research, critical thinking, information gathering, and information assessment skills are covered. Classes can be structured to meet the specific needs of your class or we can give a general overview. Librarians are also available to meet with your students several times during the semester, building the skills they need to research and evaluate information.

Librarians are also available to aid you in your own research.

Benefits of Library (Information Literacy) Instruction

Full-time students from 450 two-and four-year colleges participated in the 2009 Survey of American College Students.

60% responded "yes" when asked if community colleges should require and information literacy course.

PPCC Student

"I would never have known how many databases are available to how to narrow down my results using search terms and limiters.... Schools need to teach their students more {information literacy}."

PPCC Student

"I feel that [information literacy] should be required for students at Pikes Peak Community College so that when the students move to the universities they are armed ... for success."

MVP is our student, staff, and faculty go-to source for assistance with:

- Courses offered on military locations (on-post/on-base). A majority of these courses are compressed, eight weeks or shorter, general education classes designed to fit the schedule of active duty military students.
- College application, enrollment, and student portal training, as well as general college information.
- Academic advising on benefit use to ensure benefit eligibility.
- Evaluation of Active Duty Military Training for College Credit (Prior Learning Assessment).
- Tutoring and academic support through Veterans Upward Bound (VUB).
- Engagement in military and veteran related programming and events, including Veterans Day observations.
- Membership in the Student Veterans Organization (SVO). If interested in participating, contact: svo@ppcc.edu.
- Assistance with military withdrawal from classes due to duty conflict.
- Discounted spouse tuition for classes taken on military sites (active-duty spouse must also be concurrently enrolled in on-site classes).
- Scholarship and grant opportunities through our Institutional Member organizations, as well as the MVP Bookstore Scholarship for textbooks.
- Peer Mentoring Program to help students achieve their goals via academic and social support.
- Lending Library offering semester-long textbook checkouts (stocked by donations).

Our Mission

The Military and Veterans Programs empower military personnel, veterans and their families to achieve their academic, career and personal goals. We do this by providing quality support services and building collaborative relationships with the local community

Tips for Faculty

For confidential student concerns, please don't hesitate to contact us for assistance with active duty, veteran, or family member students. We have a lot of community resources that can help them succeed.

Refer to the PPCC MVP website to learn more information about programs and benefits: www.ppcc.edu/mvp

Teaching on the Military Sites

Refer to the Teaching at Fort Carson/PAFB memos sent prior to each term for specific information about expectations, technology, etc.

You will receive a PPCC-sponsored Gate Pass Authorization letter if teaching at the Peterson and/or Fort Carson locations. Check your college email for specific information about military site passes.

Classes run at eight (8) students, most of whom will register around three weeks prior to the start of the class.

You will not need keys to the classroom. Both facilities have a nighttime/weekend building monitor who unlocks and locks the classroom and the office and assists with basic technology issues.

Classroom technology belongs to the military; you will not have access to PPCC network drives. Army classrooms do not allow USB drives. Using D2L Sandbox or class shell is recommended.

Military Term Designations

See the MVP Instructional Calendar for start, end, and holiday dates which can be found at:

<https://www.ppcc.edu/faculty-staff/publications/calendars>

Typically, military terms begin with "MI" and have a number to indicate which part of term it is (e.g., MI 1).

Student ID Cards

Every PPCC student needs a photo Student Identification Card. A properly validated Student ID enables you to use the Library, the computer lab, or other services.

Obtain a Student ID your first semester at PPCC in the Student Life Center at Centennial Campus, Downtown Studio Campus, or Rampart Range Campus. This ID is good for your entire student career at Pikes Peak Community College. If your ID is lost, stolen or mutilated you may obtain a replacement ID for $10. Proof of identification is required for all new and replacement IDs (e.g., driver's license, photo ID, military ID, etc.).

Other Photo IDs

The Student Life Office will also produce special IDs for nursing practicum students, Fitness Center members, etc. upon special arrangement. Cost is $5 per ID, per semester.

The Campus Information Center

Student Life on Centennial campus, Room A-208 is your source of information regarding student organizations and activities, other events on campus, and the College in general. Call 502-2522 for more information.

Services available in the Student Life Information Center include student IDs, special event info, general college information, copies, and friendly staff ready to answer your questions.

The Food Pantry

Just bring your student ID! Students are allowed to take six (6) food items and one (1) toiletry item per visit; baby food and diapers are also available (in limited quantities). The Pantry is located at Centennial, Downtown Campuses in the Student Life Office and at Rampart Range campus. We are always accepting donations!

CC: Wednesdays and Thursdays always available

DTSC: Mondays and Tuesdays always available

RRC: Open as needed

Co-curricular Programming

Student Life offers co-curricular programming in health and wellness, sustainability, and student activities. Contact the Student Life office to learn more or to get involved!

The Grove

The Grove, on Centennial campus, Room A-207, is our Commons area at our main campus. It features free Wi-Fi, comfortable furniture, a big screen plasma TV, cool art, and more. Check out the recliners for a quick nap between classes. Pull up to the window counter with your laptop and log on. Gather around a large table for a quick bite or study group. In the Grove you can meet students, find friends, and hang out. It's so great, we actually have to remind you to go to class!

So what's up with that name? It's true, an aspen grove is a lovely place to gather. But it's more than that. An aspen grove is the largest living interconnected organism in the world. Its defining characteristics are longevity, a hardy nature and interconnectedness. The Grove in Student Life is so named, first, because of its location in the Aspen Building, but more-so because it reflects the Student Life mission of building community by focusing on the interconnectedness of the campus community.

The Playground

The Playground, outdoors off the Grove. This is an outdoor gathering spot on campus. It features picnic tables, goofy orange chairs that you can move around to form cluster seating, Wi-Fi, and a solar operated table that has outlets for you to charge your electronics while you relax in the shade.

Mission:

To empower first generation, low-income college students, veterans and individuals with disabilities to persist, graduate and transfer by providing comprehensive academic and personalized services.

Core Values:Compassion:

Compassion drives us to be authentic and to respond without judgment.

Empowerment:

We encourage students to make their own choices and empower them with the tools to develop their own potential.

Passion:

We are passionate about excellence in daily job performance and helping others achieve their goals.

Teamwork:

Our team is enhanced by the strengths of our individual members and embraces diversity.

What is TRiO?

TRiO programs are federally funded programs through the U.S. Department of Education. These programs are intended as outreach and service programs to provide services to students who are low-income, first generation, veterans, and/or students with disabilities.

The Trio SSS Offices provide:

- One-on-One Math Tutoring
- Online Refresher Math Instruction
- Academic Coaching and Career Planning
- Four-year college university campus tours and transfer advising
- Additional help with writing assignments
- Scholarship and financial aid searches
- Financial Literacy Instruction
- Pre-semester conferences
- Test anxiety and study strategies
- Summer Math Attack (math success course)
- Friday all day math study group

How do students get into the program?

Students may pick up an application from SSS, on Centennial campus, room A130 or online at ppcc.edu/sss. For questions call 502-3222.

Requirements

- Be enrolled in a transferable Associates degree program at PPCC (full-time students have priority)
- Demonstrate a need for academic support to successfully complete a PPCC degree and transfer to a four-year college

- Be a low income individual and/or be a first generation college student and/or a student with a documented disability
- Be motivated

Can I refer students to the program?

Yes, please do!

We are always looking to help students.

More than half of PPCC students are eligible. Just mention our program to your classes as part of the service offerings at PPCC or when students are looking for assistance. If you are not sure if they should consider SSS or DSSS, you can send them to SSS and we can help the student make that determination.

When and how often will SSS contact me?

If an SSS participant is in one of your classes, we may be contacting you at least twice a semester to request student progress information. The early alert and mid-semester alert progress report request will show up in your faculty assigned box in your respective division at the beginning and middle of the semester.

This is the only paperwork you should need to complete for us.

Please be advised that other programs also ask for this information, so be sure to look at who submitted the request before returning completed progress reports so that they will get to the right place.

ID with them to test.

The Testing Center is committed to providing exceptional, accessible, and comprehensive testing services for Pikes Peak Community College and the community. All tests are administered under standardized conditions that are efficient, fair, and secure. We maintain and adhere to all standards set forth in the National College Testing Association's Professional Standards and Guidelines.

The Testing Center provides the following services for students, staff, faculty, and community members:

- Course placement using Multiple Measures. Testing staff can review past academic history to determine if students meet college level placement requirements. This includes ACT scores, SAT scores, PSAT scores, GED scores, recent high school transcripts, coursework completed at other colleges and universities, and other measures.
- Accuplacer placement testing. Placement testing is available for students wanting to place into college-level courses if other placement measures do not indicate college readiness.
- Standardized and professional certification testing. Various national standardized tests are offered including: CLEP, DSST, TEAS (nursing admissions), GED, and dozens of industry certification tests (i.e. registered medical assistant). All scores must be reported to the Records office for college credit to be awarded.
- Test proctoring for make-up tests and for online courses for PPCC courses. These are given at no-charge for PPCC students enrolled in PPCC courses. Make-up testing is on an individual basis & is arranged by instructor with the Testing Center. Due to space, entire classes cannot be accommodated.

Important Reminders for Testing:

- Accommodated testing is provided by ACCESSibility Services and may be limited to certain campuses and certain times. Contact ACCESSibility Services first for all accommodated testing.
- All personal belongings, including cell phones, food, and water, are to be stored during testing.
- Students are not allowed to bring electronics into the Testing room; eBooks and other resources on computers or tablets are not permitted.
- Students should allow additional time, in addition to their exam time limit, for the check-in process.
- All exams are stopped 15 minutes prior to the test center closing time for staff to secure exams.

Frequently Asked Questions about Make-Up Testing

How do I drop off a test for a student to make up?

Complete a Testing Center Academic Make-Up Testing Instructions form, below. Exams should be hand carried to the Testing Center. There are drop boxes located just outside the door for after hour test drop off. You may pick up the completed test in person, or we will intercampus mail it to you.

What if my student is caught cheating on my exam?

All cases of Academic Dishonesty will be reported to the instructor. The Testing Center has established a process to document any instances of testing irregularities. The Assistant Coordinator, or Coordinator will contact you and provide the documentation. The instructor is responsible for deciding on and imposing consequences.

Can a student test if they come in at the last minute?

Our hours are set and we cannot allow extra time for a student to finish a test. A PPCC Test Time Acknowledgement form will be issued stating the amount of time a student had to complete the test if it is less than what you granted them. This will be attached to the test.

Can a student take a break in the middle of their test?

Students are not allowed breaks during testing. If you would like to allow your student to have a break, you must submit your test in multiple sections with a testing instruction sheet filled out for each section.

1. Start the class with a “quote of the day.”

You pick the theme to what fits you or the class. You can also give clues and have them guess who said it. An alternative might be a pun of the day.

2. Where are you from?

Have signs up around the room and have students move to the sign that represents the area they live in. This can be adapted to a lot of different concepts, such as study techniques, learning styles, or solutions to a question on the board.

3. Challenge problems, case studies, or real life uses of something –

this can be adapted to start with a video clip or picture prompt. It can be something that you come back to at the end of class or just touch on at the start of class.

4. Instead of an exit question, use an entrance question

Ask students for input on the topic of the day, what they might know about it. Or about something that relates to it. Ask for one thing they remember from the last lecture. (You might want to remind them of the topic.)

5. Commonalities –

Break the students up into groups and have a competition to find out which group has the most things in common. Give some guidelines and maybe give extra points for creativity. Use this technique throughout the semester with concept commonalities.

6. Use a true or false question to get discussion going.

Example: True or false: The postal carrier delivering mail is an example of a function. Please support your answer.

7. Give students the opportunity..

to write tips on something, like reading the text, homework, real life applications for a content topic, study hints, student support services etc. Give them the chance to put these up on the board before class begins.

8. Ask the students to tell...

what is worth celebrating for the upcoming week in one sentence.

9. Take in a really obscure item...

that can somehow relate to the topic for the day. Set it up front and have students try to make the connection to your content.

10. Word of the day11. Do a “tweet” of the day*Notes:

Got HIPs?

Service Learning - Combines meaningful community service with course content and reflection to enrich learning, teach social and civic responsibility, and strengthen communities.

Diversity/Global Learning - Courses and assignments that help students explore cultures, life experiences, and world-views different from their own.

Collaborative Projects & Assignments - Combines two key goals: learning to work and solve problems in the company of others, and sharpening one's own understanding by listening seriously to the insights of others.

Undergraduate Research - Students learn the research process and develop real-world skills, and are provided an opportunity to share their research and findings.

Writing Intensive Courses - Students approach writing as a process, with reflection and rewrites, revising their work based on peer and faculty feedback.

Learning Communities - Students learn in a connected class, with two instructors through an interdisciplinary approach while earning two courses of credit.

First-Year Experiences - Programs that bring together small groups of first-year students to focus on developing intellectual and practical competencies.

Common Intellectual Experiences - Cohorts of students (class, club, major) learn at co-curricular events through experiences which relate to their coursework.

Internships - Provides students direct experience in their discipline.

Capstone Courses & Projects - The culminating course in a major, often involving a final project or portfolio.

WHAT ARE HIGH IMPACT PRACTICES?

High Impact Practices (HIPs), are research-based strategies for effective teaching that improve student learning and persistence.

WHY HIPs?

- ❖ Higher student Persistence
- ❖ Deeper learning
- ❖ Higher interaction
- ❖ Increases in critical thinking, writing skills
- ❖ Greater appreciation for diversity
- ❖ Higher student engagement

COLLEGE WIDE SYLLABUS TEMPLATE

PPCC has developed a college-wide syllabus template to provide students with a clear path for success. Based on student feedback, college support and state directives, a syllabus task force developed an accessible syllabus template that is composed of three components.

1. Class information students need to be successful in the immediate course such as contact information, assignments, and grading policies.
2. State-determined learning outcomes for each course, and can be found on the PPCC's Master Course Syllabus page (scroll through the alphabet to find your specific course). The specific master course syllabus for your course must be hot linked into the syllabus template for your course.
3. The Institutional Syllabus as a hyper link which includes PPCC policy, and the Support Services link which directs student to the many services available to support their success.

The goal of the standard syllabus template is to provide all the material students need for success in manageable pieces through links in the syllabus. Students have the material at their fingertips but do not get overwhelmed with an oversized document.

These can be accessed at ppcc.edu/syllabus

SYLLABI BEST PRACTICES

- Set the tone for the course with welcoming language that invites students into your course
 - Communicate your expectations for students in the course and also share what you will provide to them
 - Consider questions students may have and be sure to offer answers within your syllabus
 - Articulate learning outcomes with course assignments and with the Master Course Syllabi link
 - Explicitly explain to students how they can be successful in your course
 - Explain the course format
 - Detail the time demands for the course so students know how to be successful in your class
 - Offer “teasers” to assignments to motivate students and engage them in the learned before class begins
 - Share how students can access their grades
 - Specify if you have specific attire requirements (for nursing, dental, labs, welding etc.)
 - Share your teaching philosophy
- Address technical items (calculator use, D2L, digital homework, online submissions, software, etc.)
 - Explain what student conduct in your course means (HINT: You can also do this as a first day activity and let the students create for buy in!)
 - Be aware of the length of your syllabus (too long they won't read) and the format (make it easy for them to read)
 - The syllabus must be in accessible format for all to enjoy!

Textbook FAQs:

Q: Why do we have to turn in course material orders so early in the semester?

A: The main reason we ask for textbook information so far in advance is that it helps us plan our buyback, which is the first step in the textbook cycle. It also allows us to search and reserve the largest percentage of used books in the secondary market all across the United States for upcoming terms. Course material adoptions due Fall - March 30, Spring - October 30, Summer - March 15.

Q: Why are textbooks so expensive?

A: Unlike standard merchandise where the market determines the price, intellectual materials such as textbooks are not market driven. The shelf price of a textbook begins with the publisher's price, which is a higher price compared to more mainstream titles. Textbooks are specialized and do not benefit from economy of scale cost reductions available with increased circulation of a novel or other mainstream publication.

Q: Why can students find cheaper books online?

A: When comparing textbook prices, make sure you are comparing apples to apples. The price may indeed be cheaper, but there is a reason for the price discrepancy. Many times, you may receive a different product than you receive at the Bookstore. Compromised textbooks may be missing components or access codes, counterfeit, international edition, instructor's copy, wrong edition, or simply be a defective book. Some international editions may be in violation of copyright practices and not authorized by the author or publisher, therefore we cannot purchase these editions on campus.

Q: Are faculty required to use the textbook and other materials adopted by my department chair?

A: Yes, the department chair for each discipline selects textbooks and other course materials for all sections unless approved for a pilot. See EP 330 Textbook and Course Materials Procedure for more details.

Q: Where do the Bookstore profits go?

A: The profits earned by the bookstore go back in the college and fund special projects that may not be within our standard operating budget. Expenses like the Child Development Center (CDC), Surveillance Cameras, Food Services Remodel and other non-essential enhancements. Buying books at our bookstore supports the operation of our institution as a whole and makes additional services available to all students adding value to the educational experience.

BE AWARE!

As representatives of the College, you can put the college at risk of violating access to course materials requirements if you refer students to purchase materials off campus.

Student Operated

KEPC is student/staff operated. All of the personalities you hear on KEPC are Radio and Television program students at Pikes Peak Community College. This fun experience is a requirement for their Associates of Applied Science degree in Radio and Television. This real life training prepares them for the world of commercial and non-commercial radio, Internet and satellite radio. Listen and enjoy their progress throughout each semester.

When the students are live, please call them about a song you just heard at the request line (719) 502-3131. If you miss the on-air personality, the play list on the PPCC website updates regularly with archives available. The station is staffed with students during PPCC regular semesters but not during semester breaks so, during these unstaffed times, the artists and titles of songs are not announced live.

Sit back and enjoy KEPC Maximum Variety, the voice of Pikes Peak Community College available on the Tune In app on your smart phone or at ppcc.edu/kepc. Tune your radio to 89.7 in Colorado Springs, 89.1 in Manitou Springs or in Pueblo at 93.3 FM.

You can email Sharon Hogg, KEPC manager at sharon.hogg@ppcc.edu if you have questions.

What Is OER?

Open Educational Resources (OER), are “educational materials that are freely accessible and openly licensed, allowing you to adapt, share, or use; with limited or no restrictions”

Basically, they can be textbooks, learning materials, or even software that are under a copyright license that allows you to: Retain, Reuse, Revise, Remix, and Redistribute.

Why Use OER?

OER provides benefits to our students financially and academically:

- Cost – With the cost of textbooks so high, OER has been cited as one way to lower costs for students.
- Academic Performance – Studies have shown, that the use of OER can help students in terms of grades, retention, and course completion.
- Gives You The Power – You can choose what content you wish to keep, alter, update, or delete. No publisher involved!

Can I Use OER at PPCC?

Yes you can!

Promoting Advancement & Growth for Educators Program

Promoting Advancement and Growth for Educators Program Snapshot

What is PAGE?

The Promoting Advancement and Growth for Educators (PAGE) Program is one of five programs made available through PPCC's Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL). PAGE is a voluntary, self-paced program that encourages adjuncts to take advantage of professional development opportunities both inside and outside of the college. Adjunct Instructors are given an opportunity to "earn" while they continue to "learn."

CETL understands that one size does NOT fit all when it comes to Professional Development. We all have different needs, interests, academic disciplines, and ideas about teaching. This means that you choose:

- The professional development opportunities/workshop.
- What takeaway you will use for reflection.
- The ways to implement what you learned into your PPCC classroom.
- How to assess the effectiveness/success of the implemented idea.

Criteria

1. Complete & submit Intent Form.
 - Professional Development Units (PDUs) are not earned until CETL approves your Intent Form.
 - Obtain chair signature acknowledging desire to participate in PAGE
2. Earn 16 PDUs per Tier
 - Professional development can include
 - classes taken during Professional Development Week (PDW)
 - training in your department that is teaching specific
 - Other PPCC programs like Mental Health First Aid or Boot Camp... and more!
 - Apply up to 8 PD units you earned outside of PPCC per tier
 - discipline-specific like a local, regional or national conferences
 - graduate-level classes
 - webinars or trainings that are specific to your content or relating to teaching
3. Apply to May Institute
 - after teaching at PPCC 4 or more semesters for Tier 2 and after teaching two or more additional semesters for Tier 3 and again for Tier 4
 - earn a Meets Expectations (or better) on most recent teaching evaluation
 - successfully complete 16 PDUs
 - May Institute application - chair signature required
4. Present at May Institute by sharing reflection of professional development you attended, ideas implemented in the classroom, and how you assessed the effectiveness of those ideas.
5. Earn pay increase!

Note: PDUs are not grandfathered into the Promoting Advancement and Growth for Educators Program.

2. Click on the third link on the page: Student Conduct Issue or Concerning/Disturbing Student Behavior.
3. In the “What are you reporting?” section, choose:
Student Conduct Issue or Distressing/Disturbing Student Behavior.
4. Fill out the report as objectively and completely as possible.
5. Still unsure of what to do or have questions before you report?
We’re a phone call away!

Our mission

The Dean of Students Office supports a productive and safe learning environment through investigation and resolution of violations of the College’s Student Code of Conduct. In each case, the Dean of Students is committed to providing an equitable and respectful disciplinary process that upholds the rights of all students, while fostering the development of student responsibility and life skills.

What every faculty member needs to know:

CONTACT Campus Police if you feel unsafe. Dial 911.

OWN your class — set expectations and address misconduct with students respectfully and privately when it happens.

NOTIFY your Department Chair and the Dean of Students Office when incidents occur.

DESCRIBE events completely and objectively in your report.

UNDERSTAND email is discoverable, so communicate wisely.

CALL the Dean of Students Office with questions about the disciplinary process and student misconduct concerns.

TOGETHER, we collaborate to ensure every student has access to a productive educational opportunity!

Code of Conduct

ppcc.edu/app/catalog/current/student-code-of-conduct.htm

In EXTREME cases, it may be necessary to escalate the issue directly to DEAN OF STUDENTS at 719-502-2367

(Notify your DIVISION DEAN as soon as possible)

Helpful tips:

- Talk with your Program Chair about your Division’s expectations for classroom management and reporting so you understand what’s expected before you need to know.
- What seems logical and appropriate to you may not be to students, so talk with your class about your expectations and be prepared to remind them when their choices in the classroom are less-than-acceptable.
- Allowing negative behavior to persist is perceived by students as your approval of their conduct. Set parameters, and be prepared to act on them.
- Be consistent.
- Report, report, report! If in doubt, fill it out! You don’t know if a student has a misconduct record, but we do. Submitting the report is your way of documenting an incident.
- What you do matters! You are in a unique position to help our fantastic PPCC student body transition into greatness, so enjoy what you do!
- This holds true for classroom management. There are many right ways to create successful interactions between you and your students, and yours will look different from those of your colleagues.

You cannot put the same shoe on every foot.

Employee wellness policies & procedures

A fitness assessment (for insurance and liability reasons, you only do what you are able to do) is required for all members prior to using the Fitness Center. After you have completed your assessment you need to go to Student Life to get your Employee Wellness ID.

All FC participants must have a PPCC ID card to use the fitness center. You will not be allowed to stay if you do not have it. All participants scan their card into the computer.

ALL FC participants must have a workout towel with them at all times. If you do not bring your own you may rent one from the FC for $1.00

Please wear proper work out attire for safety and sanitary reasons. Work out attire for our center includes shorts or sweats, a T-shirt with sleeves (no tank tops or sleeveless shirts), and gym shoes.

All members must log in and out of the computer and sign in on the “Fitness Center Daily Workout Log” located on the counter in the Fitness Center Office.

Children are not allowed in the Fitness Center. As in other areas of the college, children cannot be left unattended.

Please do not use your cell phone while using the equipment. Please stop working out and step to the side if you need to make a call. We also ask you to refrain from reading on the treadmills. If you decide to use your cell phone or read while on the equipment it is at your own risk.

Please return work-out equipment that you used to its proper place.

Lockers: Current members may check out lockers at no charge. Bring a lock, find a locker without a lock on it, and check it out by giving the office staff your name and the locker number. The Fitness Center staff is not responsible for any theft or loss of personal property. Please use a lock.

You must be logged off the computer and be out of the locker room by the posted closing time for that day. Please do not ask the staff to stay after hours.

The circuit equipment is part of a class. All wellness members must yield to students who are working on their grade.

Over-exercise warning signs:

During exercise, watch out for:

- dizziness
- significant breathlessness
- nausea
- excessive heart rate
- undue fatigue
- tightness of chest

A current student, employee, or wellness I.D. is required at all times when using the fitness center

QUICK TIPS:FERPA (Family Education Rights and Privacy Act)

FERPA was enacted to protect student records from unauthorized use and provide the right to parents and students to inspect, correct, and control who will have access to their records. The legal citation is found in U.S. Code 20 USC 123g, including all amendments. FERPA regulations are found in the Federal Register (34 CFR Part 99).

FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level. Students to whom the rights have transferred are "eligible students."

Who is protected?

Every student who has reached age 18 or who attends a postsecondary institution (past or present) is protected. Written permission is required from a student for anyone to access his or her records for information not included in "Directory Information." Pikes Peak Community College lists "Directory Information" as name, dates of attendance, most recent other institution attended, major field of study and degrees and awards received.

What constitutes an educational record?

Educational records are those records directly relating to a student and maintained by the institution on paper (typed or hand-written), print, film, microfilm, microfiche, tape or electronics which contain personally identifiable information. Examples are date and place birth, parents and guardian addresses and where they may be contacted in an emergency, grades, test scores, courses taken, academic specialization and activities, official letters about student's status in school, et cetera.

Who may have access?

Faculty and staff of the College may have access if the information is necessary for the performance of the legitimate duties of their offices. Parent and/or guardian may have access with a written release from the student. Please contact Human Resource Services at 502-2600 for a list of others who have authorized access to student records.

Actions that may constitute a FERPA violation:

- Placing graded papers on a desk for students to pick up (there is a chance that students will see each other's grades);
- Publicly speaking to a student regarding a grade, OASIS accommodation or class progress;
- Speaking to a parent about an eligible student's educational record without a signed FERPA release.

TITLE IX

Preventing and reporting sexual harassment and sexual misconduct

Pikes Peak Community College is firmly committed to maintaining a work and learning environment where students, faculty, and staff are treated with dignity and respect. Sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and acts of discrimination are illegal, often demeaning for the individual student or employee, and can disrupt the College's positive learning and working environment. As such, all members of the College community have a responsibility to be aware of what behaviors constitute these actions/offenses and to help create an environment free of harassment or discrimination. For more information on how to report and the PPCC employees' obligation to report, visit the Human Resource Services website at: ppcc.edu/human-resource-services/sexual-harassment.

Subpoena's

If you are served with a subpoena to produce records or testify and it is job related, please contact Human Resource Services, Mr. Carlton Brooks, 502-2600.

Email

Faculty and students are given email accounts by PPCC and are expected to utilize these accounts for any official, class related correspondence. Faculty and staff are responsible for checking email for official notifications.

Where do I find my pay stub? my W-2 information?

Paystubs are located on the Employee Portal. To access the portal, go to the PPCC homepage and click Login – My PPCC. Log in using your S number and password.

Click on the "Employee" tab. On the left side, under "Employment Details" you will be able to access your pay stub, W-2 and direct deposit information.

How do I change my address or personal information with PPCC?

To change your address or phone number, contact Human Resource Services for an employee demographic form and submit the updated card to Human Resource Services.

Change of name or Social Security Number: The only acceptable form of documentation for staff/faculty/student employees to change their name or Social Security number is a new Social Security Card that reflects the revised name and/or SSN. You can apply for a new Social Security Card through your local Social Security Administration Office or visit: ssa-custhelp.ssa.gov/app/answers/detail/a_id/251. All employees must submit name and/or SSN changes to their Human Resources Department.

Change to W-4:

W-4 forms are available at Human Resource Services or under "forms" on the Portal. Completed forms must be returned to Human Resource Services.

When will I receive my first paycheck?

Instructors are paid on the bi-weekly payroll which is every other Friday. Typically the first payment is four weeks after the start of the semester as there is a two week lag in our bi-weekly payroll system. Please check with your division administrative staff to see exactly when they have submitted all of the information for payroll processing and they can then identify your first pay date. The total amount you are paid for the class is divided into equal installments over the course of the semester. Prepayment is not allowed.

What should I do if I am injured at PPCC?

It is imperative to promptly report all injuries!

If the accident is serious, call 911 and Campus Police at 502-2911. You will need to fill out a First Report of Injury as soon as possible.

If the accident is not life threatening, go to the Campus Police office A100 on the Centennial campus.

The Campus Police Officer will have you fill out a First Report of Injury and will give to authorization to receive medical treatment.

Ensure that any witnesses also complete a Witness Statement Report with the Campus Police Officer.

Emergency Notification System

Registered students and/or employees are automatically subscribed into this system, with no action required on your part.

Tips:

- Be familiar with emergency procedures.
- Know locations of exits, fire extinguishers, and AEDs.
- Practice situational awareness.
- Secure personal belongings at work and in vehicles.
- Use the buddy system and/or ask for officer escort after dark.
- Keep offices and classrooms locked.

Procedures:

In case of emergency, dial 911 from any campus phone or your personal cell phone. Follow up by calling 502-2911 (extension 2911 on any campus phone).

Fire Alarms

Evacuate when a fire alarm sounds. Assist other if needed.

Move at least 150 feet from the building. Do not stand in roadways or block access for emergency vehicles. Avoid courtyards when possible.

DO NOT re-enter the building until directed to do so by Campus Police.

Lock Down

Campus is locked and secured against a threat (active shooter or hostile threats near campus).

Shelter-In-Place

Take refuge and/or stay in a building for safety (severe weather, hazardous material spills, or other situations requiring people to stay indoors). Be prepared to evacuate or move to another location.

Civil Rights and Sexual Misconduct Resolution Process

Reference: Board Policy (BP) 19-60; System Procedure (SP) 19-60

Application: This procedure applies all students, employees, authorized volunteers, guests, and visitors of the Community Colleges within CCCS. Allegations that an individual has engaged in any discriminatory, harassing, and/or retaliatory behavior, including Sexual Misconduct, after the effective date of this procedure will be resolved under this procedure.

Basis: BP 19-60 provides that individuals affiliated with PPCC shall not discriminate or harass on the basis of sex, gender, race, color, age, creed, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, familial status, veteran or military status, pregnancy status, religion, genetic information, gender identity, sexual orientation, or any other protected class or category under applicable local, state or federal law (also known as "civil rights laws"), in connection with employment practices or educational programs and activities (including in admissions). BP 19-60 further provides that individuals affiliated with PPCC shall not retaliate against any person who opposes discrimination, harassment or retaliation, or participates in any complaint or investigation process.

Filing a Complaint: Any person who believes they have been subjected to a civil rights violation should follow this procedure to report their concerns. PPCC will act on any complaint brought to the attention of the Title IX/EO Coordinator that is made under this procedure.

Preliminary Steps and Timeline: Upon receipt of a complaint, the Title IX/EO Coordinator will review the complaint to determine whether the complaint alleges sufficient information to support that a civil rights violation has occurred (reasonable cause). If the Title IX/EO Coordinator is unable to make this determination in reviewing the complaint alone, the Title IX/EO Coordinator may, at their discretion, reach out to the Complainant or others, as relevant, for clarification and/or additional information. If no reasonable cause is found to initiate a formal investigation, the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall inform the Complainant of this decision and discuss other options for addressing the reported concerns. If there is reasonable cause and the Complainant wishes to proceed, the Title IX/EO Coordinator will initiate an informal resolution or a formal investigation. If the Complainant does not wish to proceed, the Title IX/EO Coordinator will give consideration to the Complainant's preference, but reserves the right, when necessary to protect the PPCC community, to initiate an informal resolution or formal investigation of the complaint. The Title IX/EO Coordinator also reserves the right to initiate an investigation and resolve a complaint without a participating or identifiable Complainant.

Interim Actions: The Title IX/EO Coordinator may implement interim actions, including Supportive Measures, intended to protect the safety and security of the campus community, address the effects of the reported behavior, and prevent further violations, while the complaint is under review or investigation.

These remedies may include, but are not limited to

- placing an employee on administrative leave;
- interim actions outlined in the SP 4-30 Student Disciplinary Procedure;
- campus bans/emergency removals;
- referral to counseling and health services or to the Colorado State Employee Assistance Program (CSEAP);
- education to the community;
- altering work arrangements;
- providing campus escorts;
- implementing contact limitations between the parties (e.g., no contact orders);
- offering adjustments to academic deadlines or course schedules; and/or
- suspending privileges such as attendance at College activities or participation in College-sponsored organizations.

Any campus ban/emergency removal will be implemented only after a determination that the person poses an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of another. Following the completion of the investigation or resolution process, interim actions may be continued or made permanent as deemed necessary.

Rights of Involved Parties: Throughout the civil rights and sexual misconduct resolution process, Complainants and Respondents shall be entitled to the following:

- To be treated with respect by CCCS employees.
- To take advantage of Supportive Measures and other resources, such as counseling, psychological services, and health services.
- To experience a safe living, educational, and work environment.
- To have an advisor of their choice present at any meeting.
- To have access to a Title IX/EO Coordinator, investigator(s), hearing officers/decision-maker(s) for Title IX cases, and/or other individuals assisting with the resolution process who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against either party.
- To receive amnesty for minor student misconduct (such as alcohol or drug violations) that is ancillary to the incident.
- To be free from retaliation.
- To be informed of the outcome/resolution of the complaint, and the sanctions and rationale for the outcome where permissible.
- To have assistance in contacting law enforcement, if desired.
- To request housing, employment, and/or educational modifications, as deemed appropriate and reasonable.
- To request no further contact with the opposite party, as deemed appropriate, allowable and reasonable.

Informal Resolution

The Title IX/EO Coordinator, in consultation with the parties, may determine that an informal resolution is appropriate to resolve the reported concerns. The primary focus during an informal resolution remains the welfare of the parties and the safety of the PPCC community, but it does not involve a written investigation report or an opportunity to appeal. An informal resolution may include but is not limited to:

- The provision of interim or long-term remedial measures;
- Referral to other resolution processes;
- Training or educational programming for the parties;
- The Title IX/EO Coordinator or a designee serving as a facilitator to discuss the reported concerns with the Complainant and Respondent (either separately or together) and to identify possible resolutions and/or appropriate future conduct; and/or
- Referral to a Disciplinary Authority to further address the reported behavior, as deemed appropriate.

Notice of the allegations and specific Informal Resolution process will be provided to both parties.

At any time during the informal resolution process, the Title IX/EO Coordinator may elect to initiate a formal investigation as deemed appropriate to resolve the matter. The parties can elect to cease the informal resolution process at any time before it concludes and proceed with a formal investigation. The informal resolution process is not available in Sexual Harassment cases involving a student Complainant and an employee Respondent.

Formal Investigation

If a formal investigation is initiated, the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall provide written notice (Notice of Investigation) to the Complainant and Respondent notifying them of the investigation and will assign one or more impartial investigators to conduct an investigation into the complaint. The investigation will include an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence, both inculpatory (incriminating or tending to show responsibility for a violation) and exculpatory (exonerating or tending to negate responsibility for a violation).

Preliminary Investigation Report

Following the fact gathering stage of the formal investigation, the investigator(s) shall issue a Preliminary Investigation Report to the Complainant and Respondent (and their advisors, if applicable) for review. The Preliminary Investigation Report will include relevant facts as gathered by the investigators. At this stage, parties may review upon request all evidence collected as part of the investigation, whether or not it will be relied upon in reaching a determination. The Complainant and the Respondent will have ten (10) calendar days to review and respond to the Preliminary Investigation Report with any changes, clarifications, or questions.

Final Investigation Report

At the conclusion of the fact gathering stage and formal investigation, including any relevant information submitted in response to the Preliminary Investigation Report, the investigator(s) shall issue a Final Investigation Report to the Title IX/EO Coordinator detailing the factual findings and summarizing the relevant evidence.

Upon receipt of the Final Investigation Report, the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall proceed as follows:

For cases involving Sexual Harassment within the United States, the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall initiate a live hearing as described in SP 19-60. If a live hearing cannot be held due to refusal of parties to participate, PPCC reserves the right to address the conduct through the procedures applicable to non-Sexual Harassment/Title IX cases.

Following the hearing, the Hearing Officer will issue a Determination Report to the Title IX/EO Coordinator as to whether or not, based on a preponderance of the evidence, the alleged behavior took place and whether that behavior constitutes a civil rights violation. In reaching this determination, the Hearing Officer must consider all relevant evidence, except for any privileged information (unless waived) or medical records (unless specific, written consent is obtained). If a party or witness does not submit to cross-examination during the live hearing, the Hearing Officer cannot rely on any of their statements in their determination, and may not draw any inferences based solely on a party or witness failing to submit to cross-examination. The Determination Report shall include a summary of the allegations; a summary of the procedural steps in the case; findings of fact supporting the determination, conclusions regarding violation of applicable policies with supporting rationale; any disciplinary steps or remedial measures imposed; and the parties' appeal rights.

For other civil rights cases (non-Sexual Harassment or Sexual Harassment outside the United States), the Title IX/EO Coordinator will obtain a written Determination Report from the investigators as to whether or not, based on a preponderance of the evidence, the alleged behavior took place and whether that behavior constitutes a civil rights violation. The determination shall include a summary of all evidence and information used to reach these conclusions.

Notice of Findings

Once a Determination Report is received (either from the investigator(s) or the Hearing Officer following a live hearing), the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall provide written notice (Notice of Findings) simultaneously to the Complainant and Respondent (and their advisors, if applicable) notifying them of the findings. The Complainant and Respondent shall be advised of their right to appeal, subject to the grounds below, by filing a written appeal with the Title IX/EO Coordinator within ten (10) calendar days of service of the decision.

Appeals for Formal Investigations

In the event of an appeal, the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall perform an initial review to determine if the appeal meets the limited grounds listed below and is timely (filed within ten [10] calendar days, as noted above). If the appeal is found to meet these criteria, the Title IX/EO Coordinator shall forward the appeal to a designated appellate officer, who shall give written notice to the opposing party and provide a suitable time frame for the opposing party to submit a written response to the appeal. The appeal and any responses shall be reviewed by the appellate officer. The party requesting an appeal must show error, as the original finding is presumed to have been decided reasonably and appropriately. The only grounds for appeal are as follows:

A procedural error occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the decision (e.g., substantiated bias, conflict of interest, or material deviation from established procedures). The written appeal shall specify the procedural error and how it impacted the outcome of the decision.

The findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the investigation report or the report does not articulate a rational connection between the facts found and the decision made. The written appeal shall specify the finding(s) not supported by substantial evidence or for which the report does not articulate a rational connection between the facts found and the decision made; or

To consider new evidence, unavailable during the original investigation, that could substantially impact the original finding(s). Any new evidence and its impact must be included in the written appeal.

If the appellate officer determines a procedural error occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the decision, the appellate officer shall return the complaint to the Title IX/EO Coordinator with instructions to convene a new investigation or the appellate officer shall otherwise cure the procedural error.

If the appellate officer determines the findings were not supported by substantial evidence in the investigation report, the report does not articulate a rational connection between the facts found and the decision made, or new evidence substantially impacts the original finding(s), the appellate officer shall conduct or request appropriate additional steps (such as requesting additional investigation by the investigators) and/or modify the findings accordingly.

Written notice of the outcome of the appeal shall be provided simultaneously to the parties.

Sanctions

Once the appeal process has been exhausted, if the Respondent is found not in violation of policies or procedures outlined herein, the complaint shall be closed with no further disciplinary action. If additional concerns, outside the scope of this procedure, are identified during the course of the investigation, the findings may be shared with appropriate administrative personnel to further address, as deemed appropriate.

If the Respondent is found in violation of policies or procedures outlined herein, the findings shall be provided to the Disciplinary Authority to proceed in accordance with applicable policies:

For classified employees, disciplinary action will be taken pursuant to the applicable State Personnel Rules and Regulations: <https://www.colorado.gov/spb>
For students, disciplinary action will be taken pursuant to BP and SP 4-30, Student Discipline: <https://www.cccs.edu/wp-content/uploads/2013/09/SP4-30.pdf>

Instructors and Administrative, Professional-Technical (APT) employees are at-will under BP 3-10, and may not be subject to additional procedures when issuing sanctions: <https://www.cccs.edu/policies-and-procedures/board-policies/bp-3-10-administration-of-personnel/>.

Disciplinary Authorities may consider a number of factors when determining a sanction. These factors may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The nature, severity of, and circumstances surrounding the violation;
- An individual’s disciplinary history;
- Previous complaints or allegations involving similar conduct; and/or
- Any other information deemed relevant by the Disciplinary Authority.

The following sanctions may be imposed:

- For students: warning, probation, fines, restitution, denial of privileges, assignment to perform services for the benefit of the PPCC community, re-assignment to another class section (including the option for an on-line section), suspension, expulsion, a “Cease Communications” directive, or a “No Trespass” directive.
- For PPCC employees: warning, corrective action, probation, restitution, denial of privileges, suspension, demotion, reduction of pay, termination of employment, a “Cease Communications” directive, or a “No Trespass” directive.
- For authorized volunteers, guests, or visitors: warning, probation, denial of privileges, removal from PPCC property, a “Cease Communications” directive, or a “No Trespass” directive.

In addition to sanctions, other action may be taken as deemed appropriate to bring an end to the In addition to sanctions, other action may be taken as deemed violation, to prevent future reoccurrence, and to remedy the effects of the violation.

Student Privacy

The outcome of a PPCC investigation is an educational record of a student Respondent, and is subject to privacy protections under the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), however PPCC observes the legal requirements to disclose the records detailed in SP 19-60.

Outside Reporting - In addition to reporting to PPCC, any person has the right to file a police report. Complainants requiring assistance with this should contact the Title IX/EO Coordinator.

Student Complainants also have the right to make inquiries and/or file a complaint with:

Definitions

Sexual Misconduct is a type of prohibited discrimination based on sex and includes, but is not limited to:

- Sexual Harassment, which may be in the form of Hostile Environment, Quid Pro Quo, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence or Stalking, as those terms are defined herein.
- Non-Consensual Sexual Contact/Sexual Assault (or attempts to commit same), which is any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any body part or object, by any individual upon any individual, that is performed without consent. Sexual touching includes any bodily contact with the breasts, groin, genitals, mouth or other bodily orifice of another individual, or any other bodily contact in a sexual manner. Sexual assault also includes any nonconsensual sexual act prescribed by federal or state law, including when the victim lacks capacity to consent.
- Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse/Rape (or attempts to commit same), which is any sexual penetration, no matter how slight, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without consent.
- Dating Violence, which is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. There is no Colorado state law on dating violence; therefore, CCCS abides by the definition used in the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA) of 2013.
 - Dating Violence is violence and abuse committed by a person to exert power and control over a current or former dating partner.
 - Dating violence often involves a pattern of escalating violence and abuse over a period of time. Dating violence covers a variety of actions, and can include physical abuse, physiological and emotional abuse, and sexual abuse. It can also include "digital abuse", the use of technology, such as smartphones, the internet, or social media, to intimidate, harass, threaten, or isolate a victim.
- Domestic Violence, which includes any act or threatened act of violence upon a person with whom the actor is or has been involved in an intimate relationship. Domestic Violence also includes any other crime against a person or property, including an animal or any municipal ordinance violation against a person, or against property, including an animal, when used as a method of coercion, control, punishment, intimidation, or revenge directed against a person with whom the actor is or has been involved in an intimate relationship. C.R.S. 18-6-800.3. Domestic violence further includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of Colorado, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of Colorado.
 - Domestic violence is a pattern of abusive behavior in a relationship that is used by one partner to maintain power and control over another current or former intimate partner.
 - Domestic violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behavior that intimidates, manipulates, humiliates, isolates, frightens, terrorizes, coerces, threatens, hurts, injures, or wounds someone.
- Stalking, which is directly or indirectly through another person, is knowingly:
 - Making a credible threat to another person and, in connection with the threat, repeatedly following, approaching, contacting, or placing under surveillance that person, a member of that person's immediate family, or someone with whom that person has or has had a continuing relationship; or
 - Making a credible threat to another person and, in connection with the threat, repeatedly making any form of communication with that person, a member of that person's immediate family, or someone with whom that person has or has had a continuing relationship, regardless of whether a conversation ensues; or
 - Repeatedly following, approaching, contacting, placing under surveillance, or making any form of communication with another person, a member of that person's immediate family, or someone with whom that person has or has had a continuing relationship in a manner that would cause a reasonable person to suffer serious emotional distress and does cause that person, a member of that person's immediate family, or someone with whom that person has or has had a continuing relationship to suffer serious emotional distress. C.R.S. 18-3-602.
 - Stalking is a pattern of repeated and unwanted attention, harassment, contact, or any other course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear. Stalking can include frightening communications, direct or indirect threats, and harassing a victim through the internet.
 - Stalking also includes engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress.
- Sexual Exploitation, which occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for their own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited. Examples include invasion of sexual privacy, prostituting another person, non-consensual recording of sexual activity, going beyond the boundaries of consent, engaging in voyeurism, knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted infection or disease to another, exposing one's genitals or inducing another to expose their genitals, possession or viewing of pornography on CCCS property or at CCCS activities, or sexually based bullying.
- Hostile Environment occurs when a person is subjected to verbal or physical conduct based on a protected class that is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive, and objectively offensive to alter the conditions of a person's employment or unreasonably interfere with a person's ability to participate in or benefit from CCCS educational programs or activities, from both a subjective and objective viewpoint.
- Quid Pro Quo is a type of Sexual Harassment that exists when an employee conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct, such as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.
